

My hart goes out for all people who suffer, my mind and soul looks for ways to avoid all this and as any fire fighter knows that fire can't be put out by fire so is that violence can't be stopped with with more guns. Here in north America Sandy Hook disaster (Wikipedia article) stands as a gruesome example of that ideology. Please stop for a while and feel what your soul tells you. I know is hard I know looks impossible but I believe there is a way, a better way... we just need to seek it each time we are confronted by evil and realize that what we see is a consequence of our collective actions. Also please realize that inaction is a form of action too. I believe that people should be able to defend themselves and be able to own a gun but wearing one at all times opens the door to poor thinking and fast acting which have disastrous consequences on long time.
